

Editorials	149	Changing the measure of quality in the NHS: from purchasing activity to purchasing protocols Trevor A Sheldon, Michael Borowitz
	151	Quality, the patient's charter, and primary care Clive W Parr
Papers	152	Evaluating a policy of reduced consultant antenatal clinic visits for low risk multiparous women A M Hill, P L Yudkin, D J Bull, D H Barlow, F M Charnock, M D Gillmer
	157	Day surgery: development of a questionnaire for eliciting patients' experiences Nick Black, Colin Sanderson
	162	Day surgery: development of a national comparative audit service Nick Black, Mark Petticrew, Duncan Hunter, Colin Sanderson
	167	Agreeing criteria for audit of the management of induced abortion: an approach by national consensus survey Gillian C Penney, Anna Glasier, Allan Templeton
Quality improvement reports	170	Incompleteness and retrieval of case notes in a case note audit of colorectal cancer Neil Vickers, Allyson Pollock
	175	Audit of patients' awareness of ophthalmic diagnoses Sudha Sudesh, Susan M Downes, Peter J McDonnell
Special article	179	Purchasing for quality: still in the starting blocks? Mike Gill
Review articles	183	Audit in general practice: where do we go from here? John Spencer
	189	Medical audit: in need of evaluation Kieran Walshe, James Coles
Interview	191	Audit and the team: an interview with the Adelaide Medical Centre team Richard Baker
Viewpoint	195	Introducing new cost effective treatments into the NHS. Surfactant treatment for premature babies: who cares enough to pay? Henry L Halliday
Purchasing for quality	198	Long term care for elderly people Shah Ebrahim, Christina Wallis, Sarajane Brittis, Rowan Harwood, Nori Graham
View from Scotland	204	Frank Sullivan, John Bain
	206	Letters • Book reviews • Meetings reports • Comment • Diary • Quality quotes