

Quality in Health Care

www.qualityhealthcare.com

Editorials

- 199 QHC to become QSHC . . . Delivering safe health care: safety is a patient's right and the obligation of all health professionals Paul Barach, Fiona Moss
200 Challenges to quality monitoring systems in care homes B McCormack, H McKenna
201 Improving teaching about improving practice P Wilcock, E Carr
202 Guidelines, judgement, opinion, and clinical experience B Hurwitz

Papers

- 204 Introducing quality improvement to pre-qualification nursing students: evaluation of an experiential programme J M Kyrkjebo, T A Hanssen, B Ø Haugland
211 The effectiveness of quality systems in nursing homes: a review C Wagner, G van der Wal, P P Groenewegen, D H de Bakker
218 Burden of delayed admission to psychogeriatric nursing homes on patients and their informal caregivers F J M Meiland, J A C Danse, J F Wendte, L J Gunning-Schepers, N S Klazinga
224 Feedback of patients' evaluations of general practice care: a randomised trial E Vingerhoets, M Wensing, R Grol
229 Influence of evidence-based guidance on health policy and clinical practice in England P Coleman, J Nicholl
238 Formal consensus: the development of a national clinical guideline J Rycroft-Malone
245 A clinical informaticist to support primary care decision making D A Swinglehurst, M Pierce, J C A Fuller

Special article

- 250 A very public failure: lessons for quality improvement in healthcare organisations from the Bristol Royal Infirmary K Walshe, N Offen

Viewpoint

- 257 Understanding the organisational context for adverse events in the health services: the role of cultural censorship E Hart, J Hazelgrove

Journal scan

- 263 Abstracter: Tom Smith

Effectiveness bulletin

- 268 Effectiveness of laxatives in adults M Petticrew, M Rodgers, A Booth

274 Book reviews

275 Referees

276 Author index

278 Subject index