Appendix 4: Materials and Methods Timeline

- December 2018—February 2019
  - DSHS provided TexasAIM hospitals with SMM rates in prior years
  - First in-person learning session with gap analysis

- January – July 2019
  - SMM stratified by race and ethnicity presented to department for 1st time
  - Department quality review committee incorporates hemorrhage-specific questions into case reviews

- August 2019
  - Go-live for inter-disciplinary SMM case reviews using expanded AIM SMM case review format, considering role of SDoH

- December 2018
  - Hospital AIM Ob Hemorrhage Committee and workgroups established
  - Hospital quality data converted to SMM and presented to department

- March 2019
  - Workgroups developing bundle elements and implementation strategies

- April 2019
  - Go-live for hemorrhage risk assessment, quantitative blood loss measurement, post-hemorrhage debriefs

- November 2019
  - BMJ Publishing Group Limited (BMJ) disclaims all liability and responsibility arising from any reliance placed on this supplemental material which has been supplied by the author(s)