

Editorials	1	Quality improvement in primary health care: a European perspective Richard Baker
	2	Where does clinical audit fit in? Dorothy Wedderburn
	3	Nursing: quality in numbers Hugh Mckenna
Papers	5	Description of local adaptation of national guidelines and of active feedback for rationalising preoperative screening in patients at low risk from anaesthetics in a French university hospital E Capdenat Saint-Martin, P Michel, J M Raymond, H Iskandar, C Chevalier, M N Petitpierre, L Daubech, M Amouretti, P Maurette
	12	Trauma emergency unit: long term evaluation of a quality assurance programme Emmanuel Gagneux, Pierre Lombrail, Philippe Vichard
	19	Why is evaluation of the cost effectiveness of audit so difficult? The example of thrombolysis for suspected acute myocardial infarction Michael B Robinson, Elizabeth Thompson, Nick A Black
	27	Nurses' participation in audit: a regional study Francine M Cheater, Michael Keane
Viewpoint	37	Organisational change and quality of health care: an evolving international agenda Martin McKee, Linda Aiken, Anne Marie Rafferty, Julie Sochalski
General practice	42	General practitioners as advisers and coordinators in hospitals Frede Olesen, Poul Brix Jensen, Per Grinsted, Jes Skjold Henriksen
	48	Facilitating quality improvement in primary health care by practice visiting G Eliasson, L Berg, P Carlsson, K Lindström, C Bengtsson
	55	New concept for continuous documentation of development of quality circles in ambulatory care: initial results from an information system in Germany Ferdinand M Gerlach, Martin Beyer
	62	Letter · Book review