

Editorial	63	Moral quality entails a high standard of informed consent	Len Doyal
Papers	65	Inquiry into the potential value of an information pamphlet on consent to surgery to improve surgeon-patient communication	P Meredith, C Wood
	70	Staff and patient feedback in mental health services for older people	Dawn J R Brooker, Carole J Dinshaw
	77	Quality of midwifery led care: assessing the effects of different models of continuity for women's satisfaction	Myfanwy Morgan, Natalie Fenwick, Christina McKenzie, Charles D A Wolfe
	83	Assessing local health needs in primary care: understanding and experience in three English districts	Joanne Jordan, John Wright, John Wilkinson, Rhys Williams
	90	What do health authorities think of population based health outcome indicators?	Alastair McColl, Paul Roderick, John Gabbay, Gill Ferris
Special article	98	Public participation and the moral quality of healthcare rationing	Len Doyal
Effectiveness bulletins	103	Management of colorectal cancer	Arabella Melville, Trevor A Sheldon, Richard Gray, Amanda Sorvden
	109	Effective management of stable angina	Mark Petticrew, Mark Sculpher, Jo Kelland, Rachel Elliott, Diana Holdright, Martin Buxton
	117	Letter • Book reviews	